Please join Honors at Oakton for a conversation with Chicago-based artist, academic, and educator, Ambrin Ling. As a person of mixed Chinese, Pakistani, and Scottish descent, she is interested in mining paper and other materials with vibrant cross-cultural and international histories in relation to themes of place, power, and belonging. Students' questions will be centered as we learn more about Ling's creative projects, scholarship, and experiences as both a researcher and a professional artist. Please register in advance at <https://tinyurl.com/2ymrckjy>.

This event is made possible through the generous support of the Oakton Educational Foundation. To learn more about the Honors Program at Oakton College, visit www.oaktonhonors.com or email honors@oakton.edu.
